

I feel the protection act is very important and necessary. Without it we have no way of protecting ourselves from continual harrassment by telemarketers. We are constantly interrupt you in the middle of what you are doing and refuse to take no for an answer. At least TV or radio commercials you can avoid or turn off and mail you can throw away. These people force you to be rude. I feel it is an invasion into my home.